

Paul Arthur

Professor of Digital Humanities at the University of Western Sydney

Paul Arthur is Professor of Digital Humanities at the University of Western Sydney and inaugural President of the Australasian Association for Digital Humanities. He has published widely in fields of history, literature, communication and cultural studies, and has held fellowships in Australia, Europe and North America. He is currently visiting Germany as Dr R. Marika Chair of Australian Studies at the University of Cologne.